Marion Center Joint High School

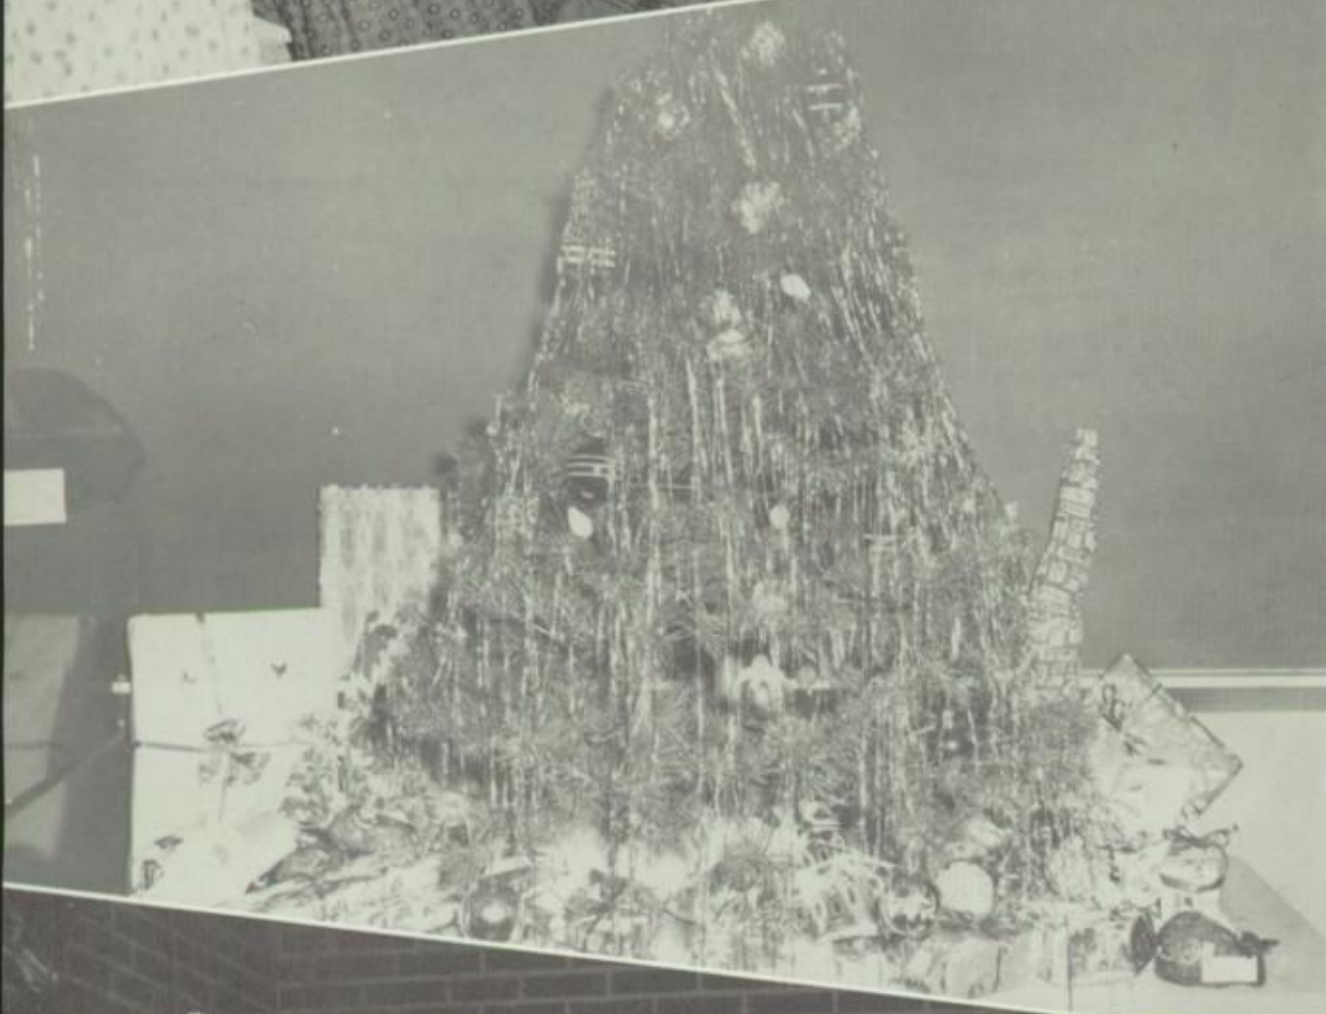

Marion Center, Pennsylvania

Autumn through Spring our book covers the Program . . .

An event we all await in the fall is the taking of school pictures. Carol Loughry is being photographed.

At Christmas time Home Room 29 showed their Christmas spirit by decorating a tree and buying gifts for a family which has had some recent misfortunes.

. . . of the Activities and Happenings in, of and by our school. We of the Centerama Staff have tried to compile this Volume to serve for all time as the history of the term of 1959-1960.

Autumn - Winter - Spring

AUTUMN

In the fall of the year a representative from Cover Studio came to take activity pictures for yearbook. Here Sylvia Bence, Mrs. Montgomery, Bonnie Dilts, and George Palmer discuss the pictures that are to be taken.

WINTER

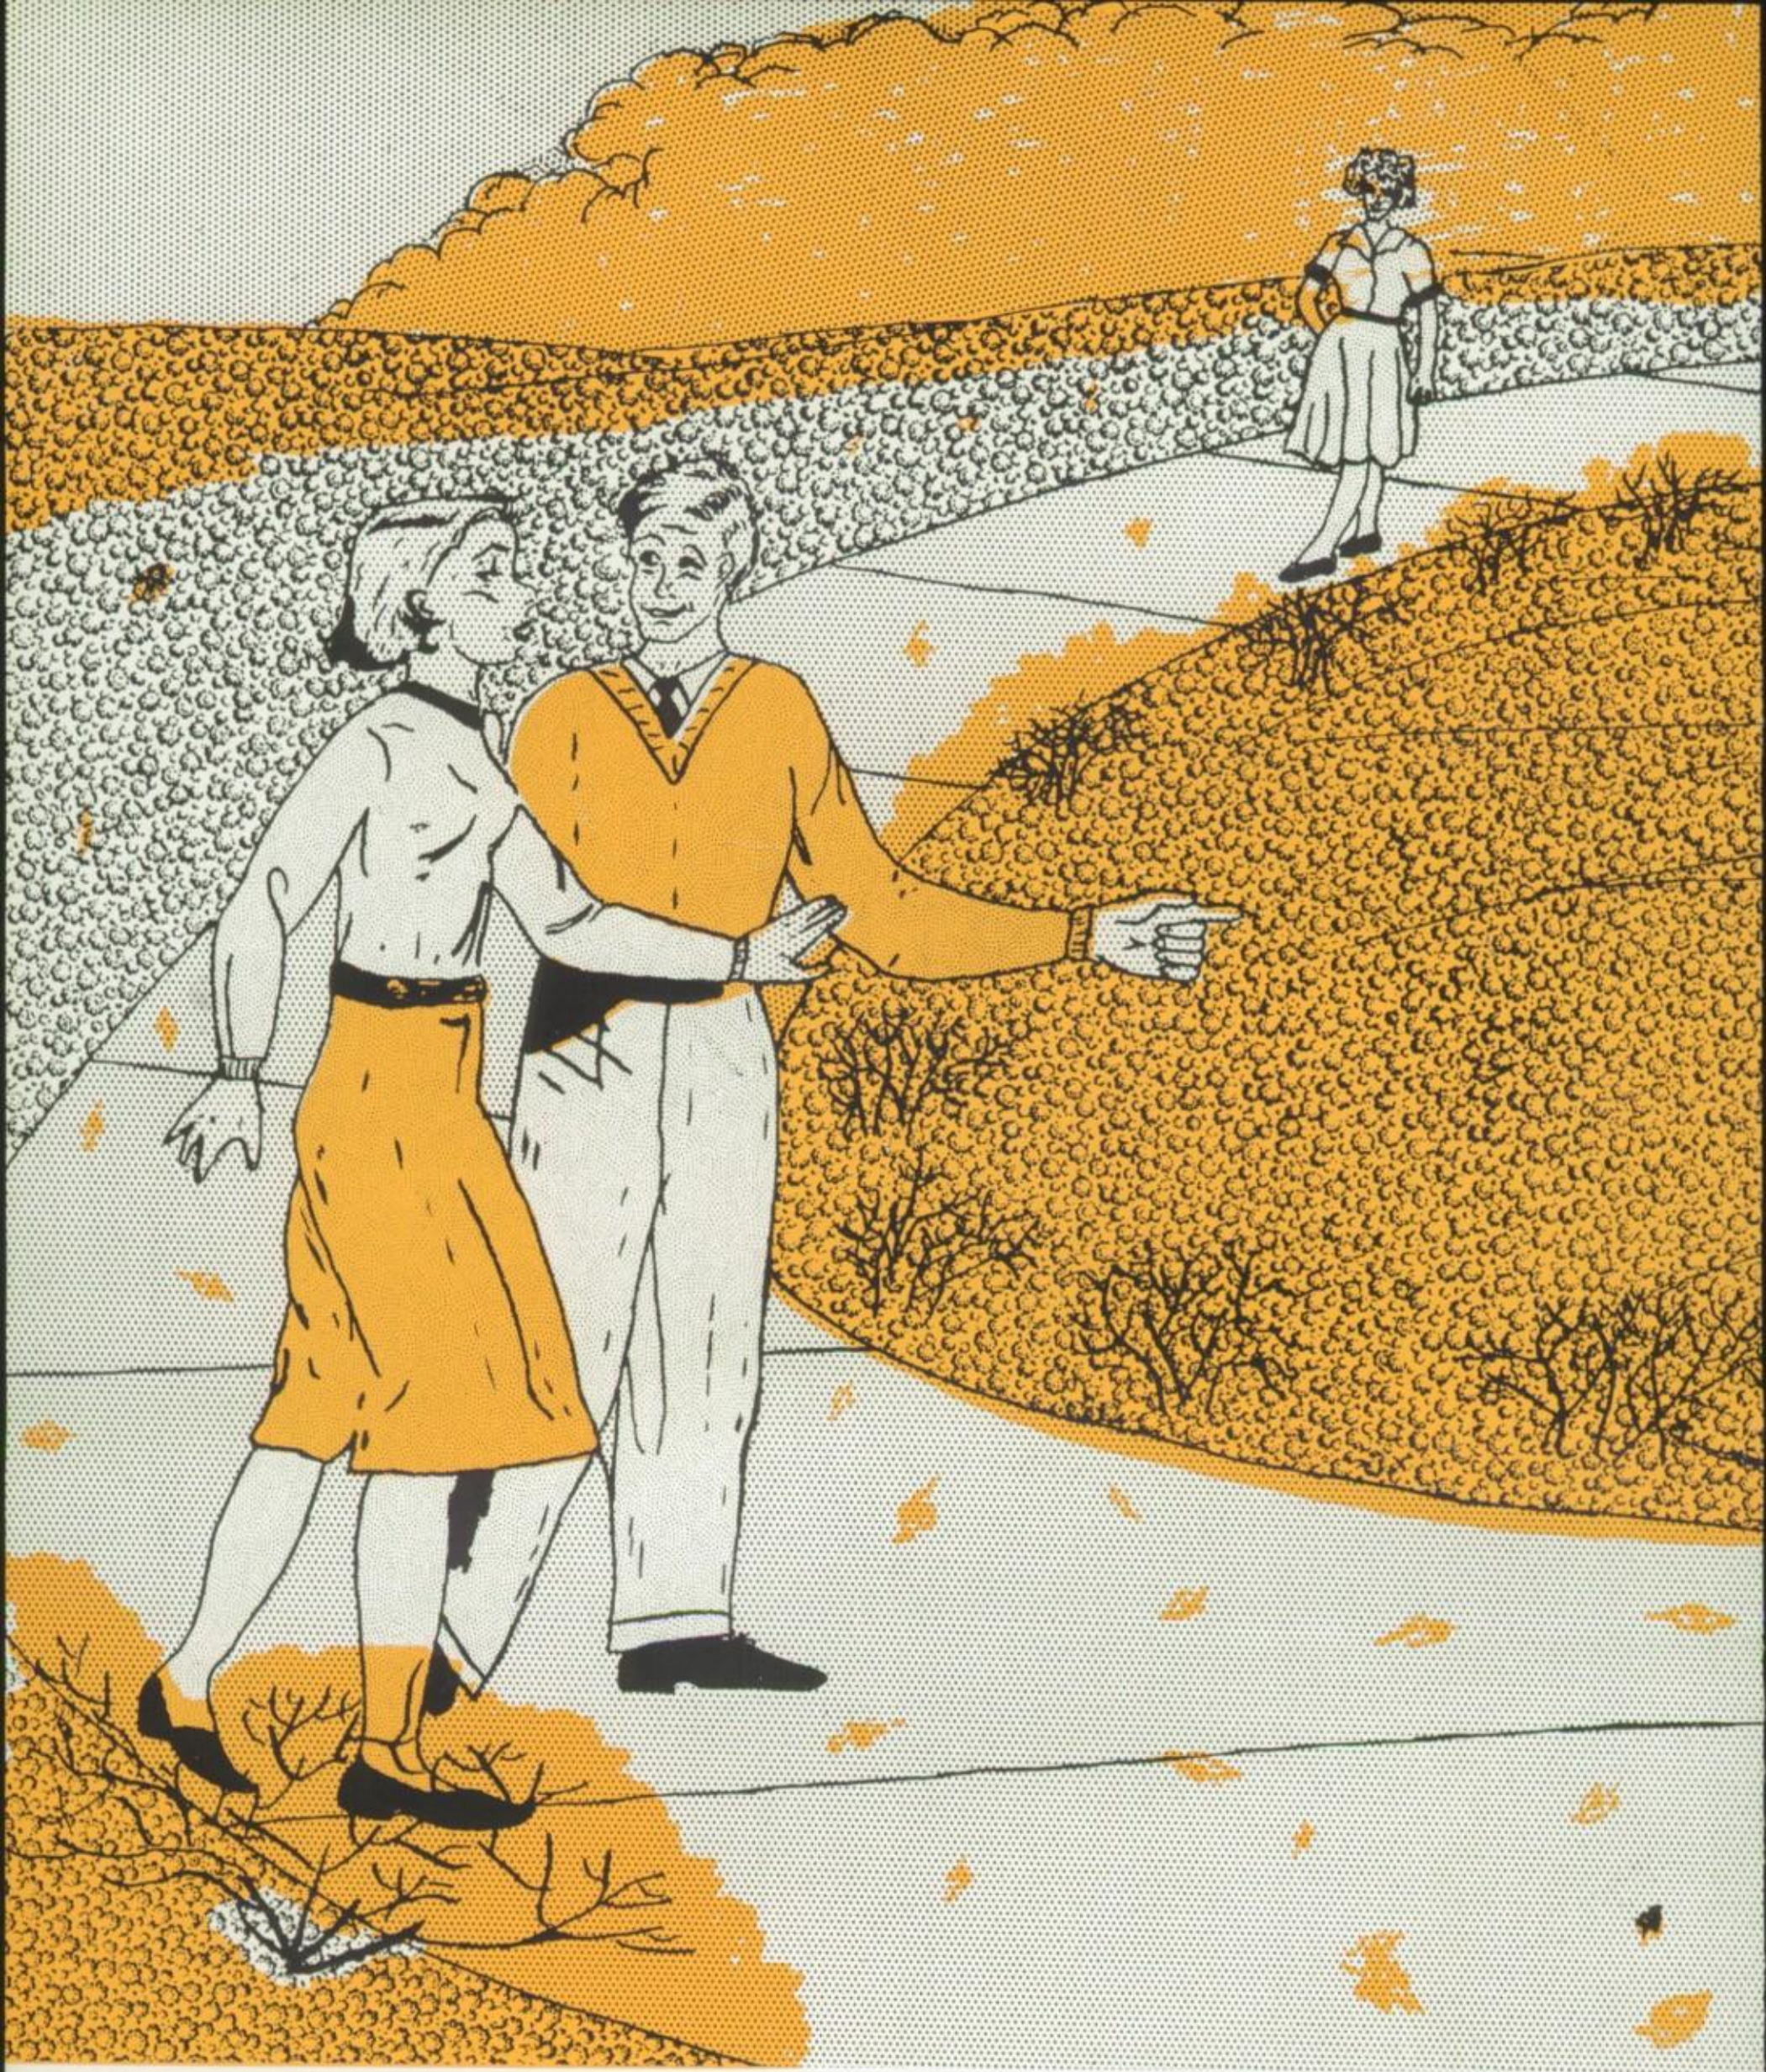

In the middle of the year Tony Canale, assistant editor; Paulette Ratner, editor; and Sylvia Bence, assistant editor; review the yearbook dummy to see how they are progressing.

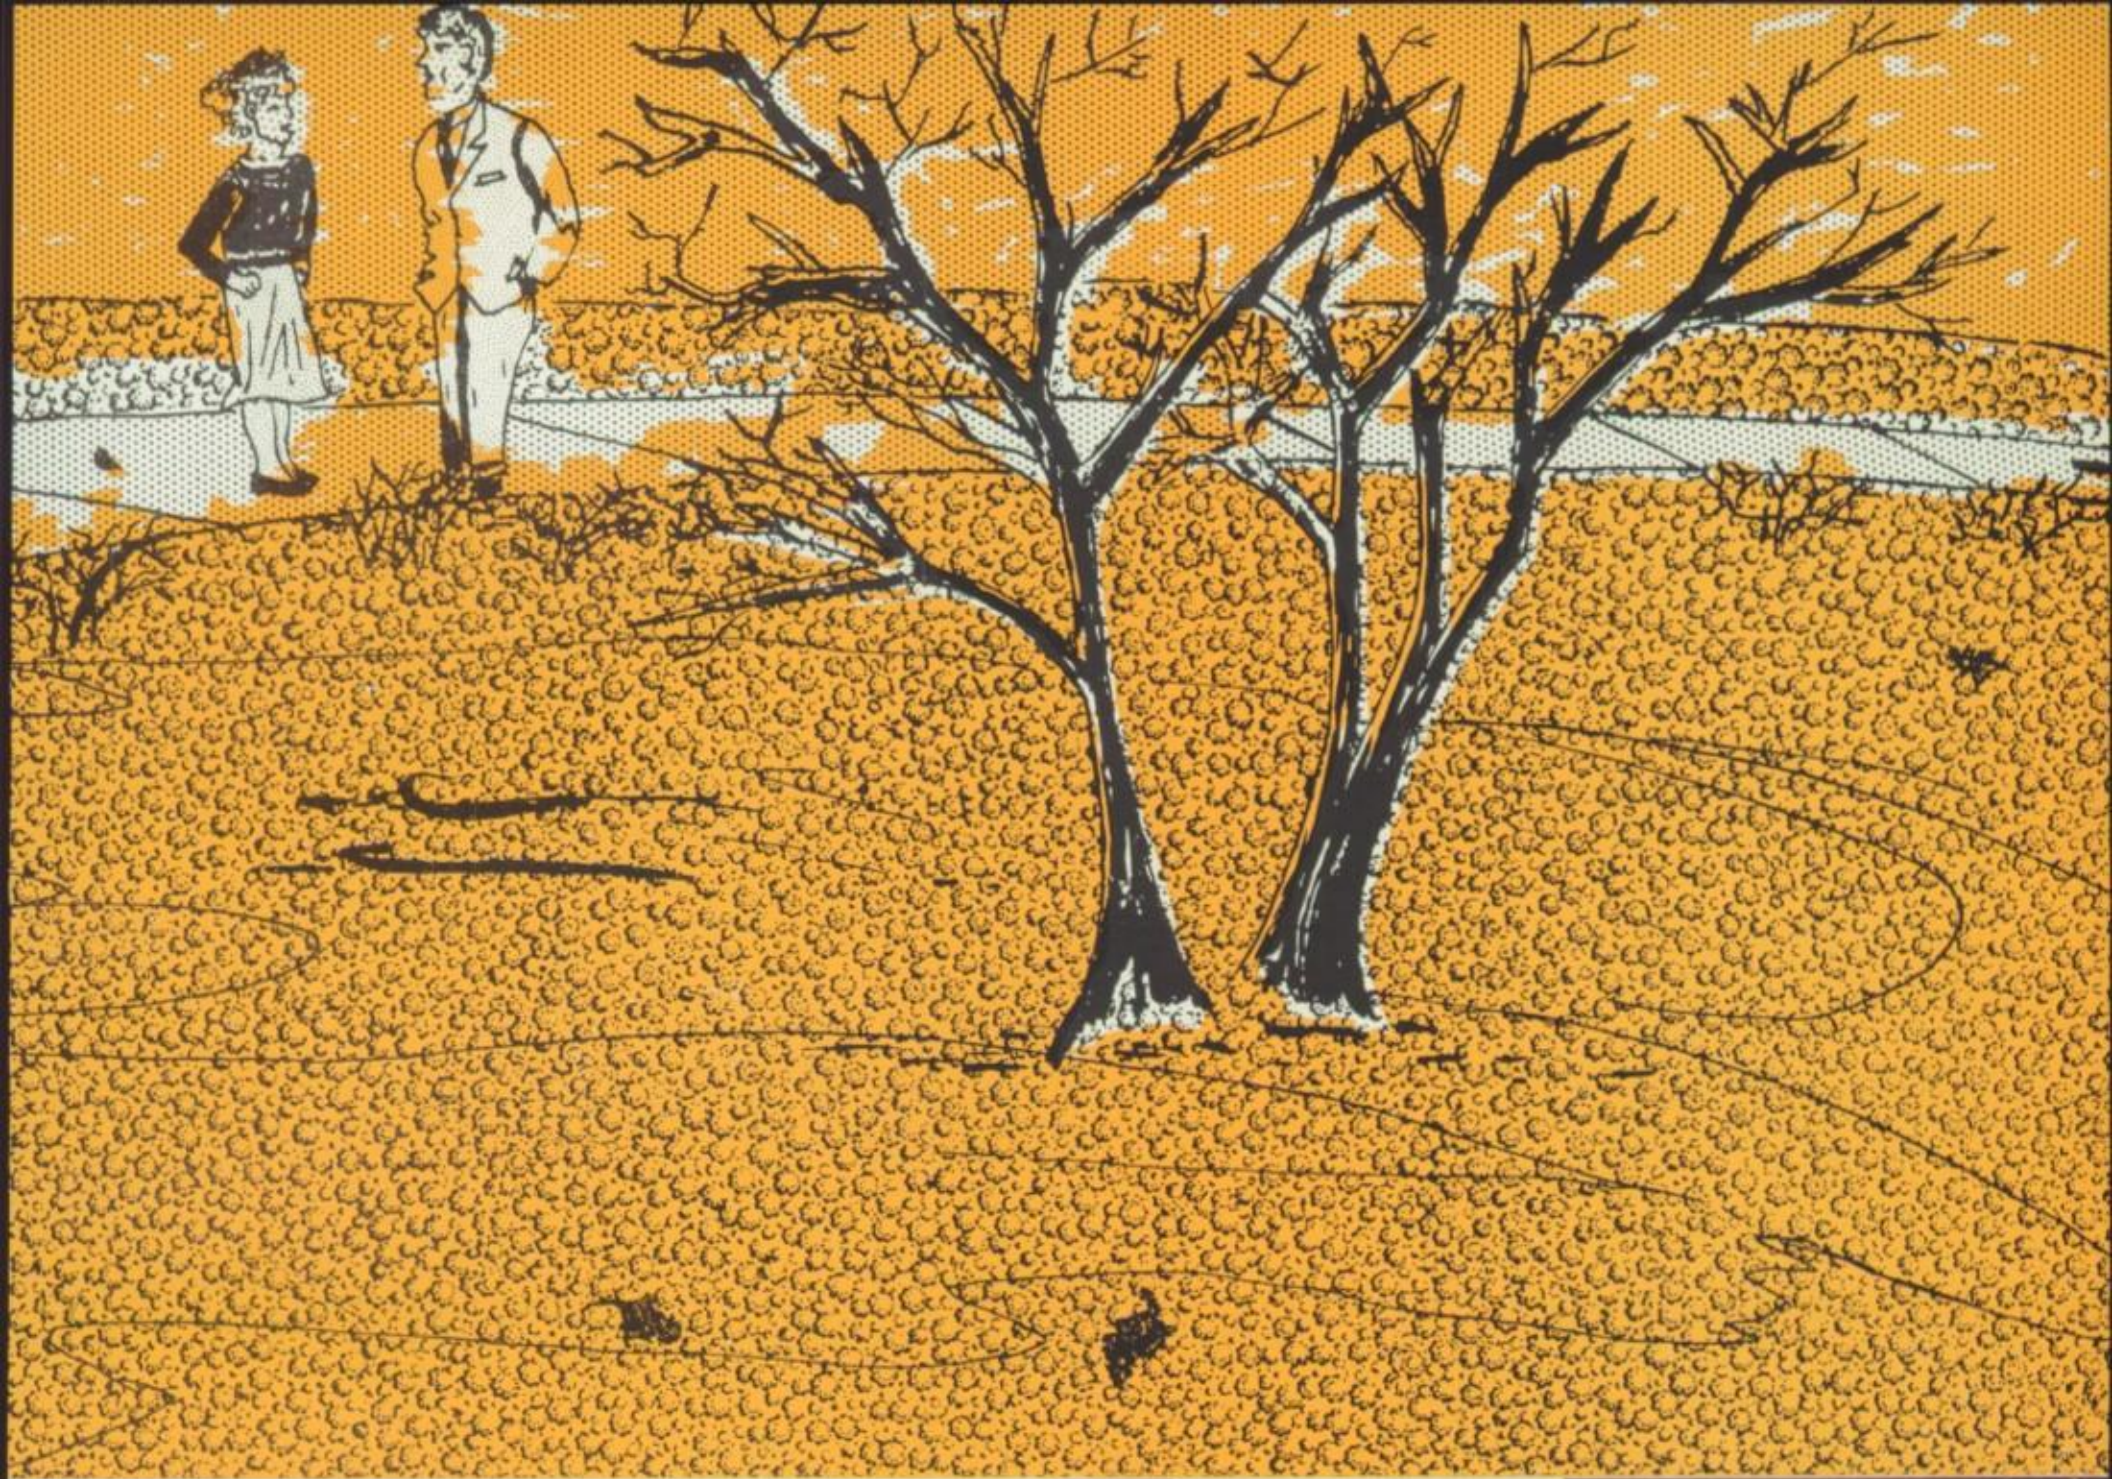

SPRING

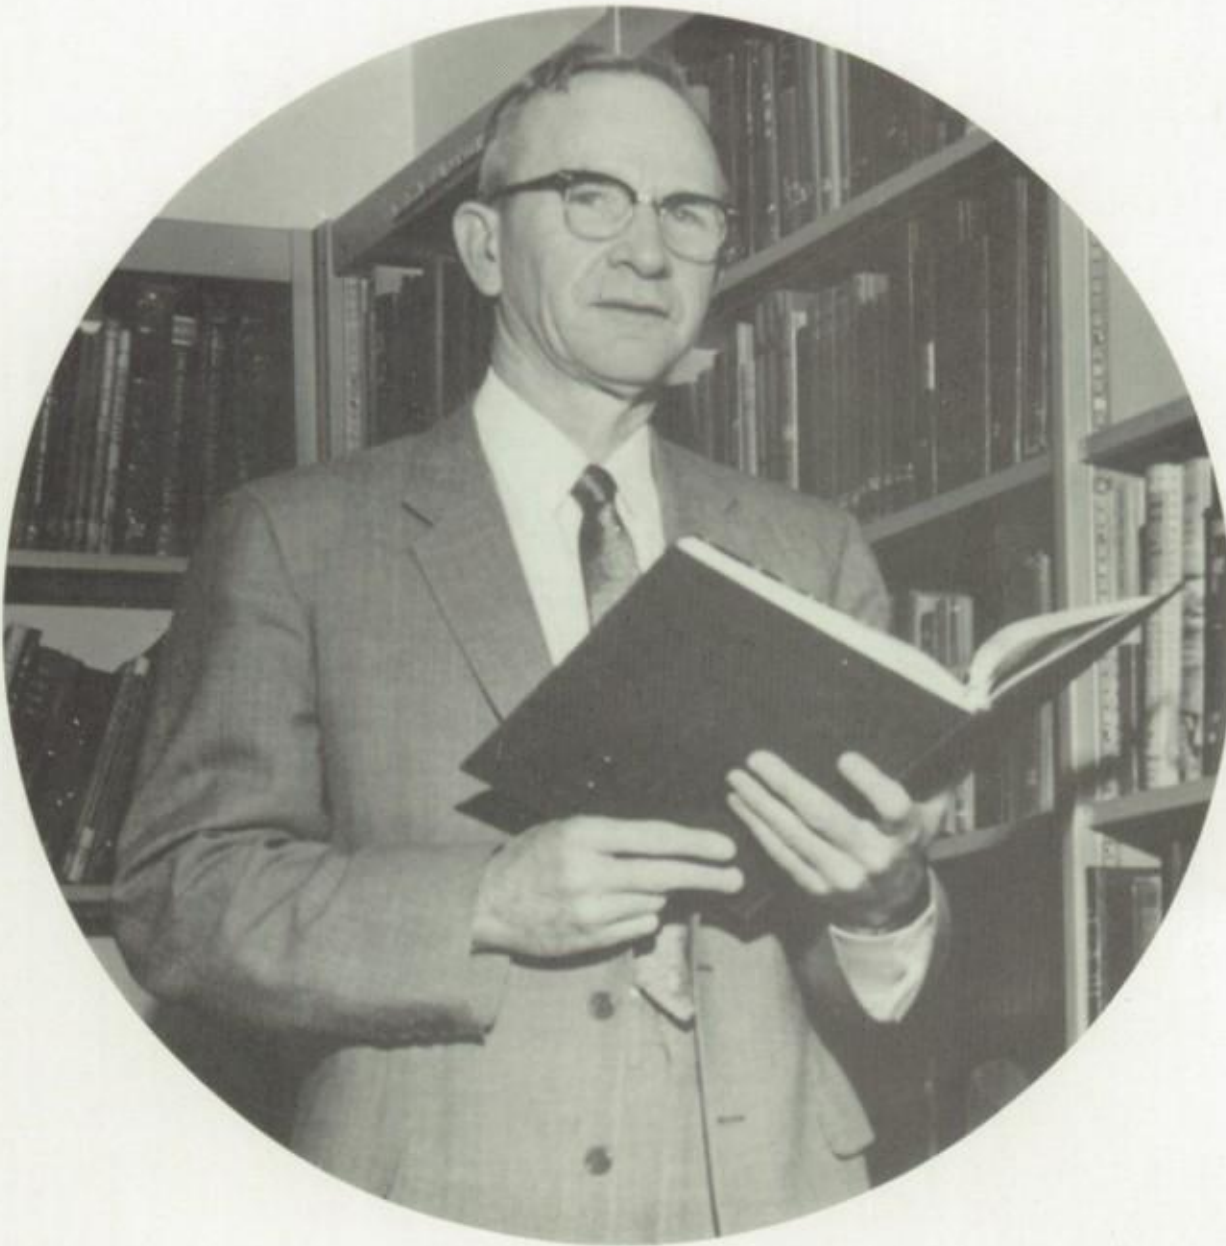

In the spring the staff set up a display for the purpose of selling more book covers. As a reward they won a fourth prize award of $25 from the Colad Plasticoat Bookcover Company.

Behind every well-kept establishment are the people who keep it that way. Here at Marion Center, it is no exception. These people, the custodians, are seldom seen by the faculty or student body, but their work is seen and appreciated. Pictures were not available for Mrs. Lippert and Mr. Barr.

Miss Zugates, dietician in the cafeteria, smilingly serves pizza pie at the P. T. A. Fair while Mrs. Fulmer, a cafeteria helper, looks on. It is Miss Zugates who plans the tasty and nutritious meals served daily.

The hard working cafeteria staff daily prepares the delicious and well-balanced lunches served there. The ladies who serve them are: Mrs. Mae Little, Mrs. Florence McFarland, Mrs. Mary Bush, Mrs. Isabelle Fulmer, Mrs. Thelma Winebark, Mrs. Margretta Lowman, and Mrs. Grace Griffith.

The Drama . . .

Linda Hill exhibits a bit of temper at Larry Montgomery's expense in the senior play, "A Little Honey."

Mr. Thompson displayed the art of glass blowing at a school assembly.

Performances

The nativity scene of the Christmas Pageant, "The Fourth Wise Man," was presented by the music department.

Performance is a word that arouses much excitement in our school. It may be special assemblies, performed by professionals, or a play enacted by our own amateurs. The Junior Play, the Senior Play, and the Christmas Play are three outstanding presentations that are put on annually for the student body and the public.

Future Homemakers

At Christmas time the FHA packed baskets of food for families throughout the district. Lois Ackerson and Pat Forsythe are shown preparing the food for distribution.

FHA-FFA Winter Magic Queen and King, Wanda Carlson and Roger Hamill, are honored by members of the court, Sylvia Bence and Leslie Smith while other members, Maureen McCauley, Dave Carnahan, Marjorie Renosky and Joe Lemmon look on.

Roberta Gilkey as the Spirit of Youth, Richard Kuffa as a follower, and Sandra Dalessio as his girl friend, gaze at the models as they come out of the cave.

Ponce de Leon, his followers, and their new found lover's gather around for a final look at the fountain of youth.

Future Farmers

Standing are the boys who received the Greenhand Farmer Degree with their advisor, Mr. Steffey; seated are the club's officers who initiated them.

Edward Smrek, John Gaston, and Raymond Good helped in repairing the school sidewalks.

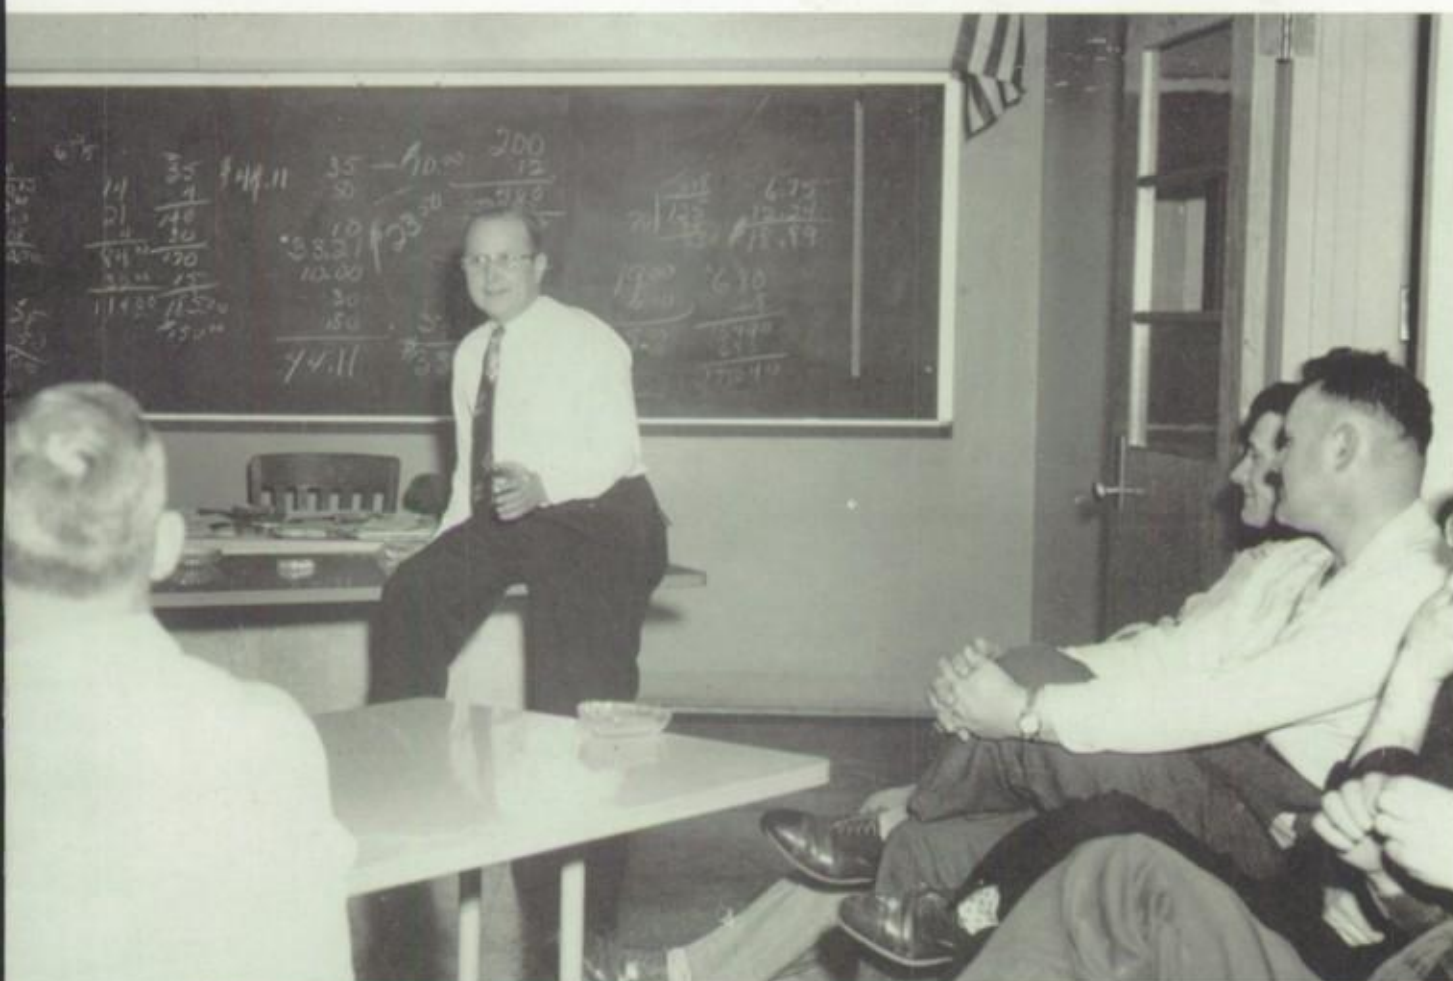

Edward Sterling received the Keystone Farmer Degree, and Joseph Lemmon was the delegate to the state convention.

The Marion Center chapter of the Future Farmers of America is composed of junior and senior high boys. Starting in the ninth grade, this organization prepares them for vocational farming by teaching them the fundamentals. The first degree which a boy receives is the Greenhand Farmer Degree in which he is initiated by the F.F.A. officers. This year's officers were, Roger Hamil, president; Joseph Lemmon, vice-president; James Sebring, secretary; David Carnahan, treasurer; James Yeomans, chaplain; Clair Braugher, reporter; and Edward Sterling, sentinel. The sponsor of the organization is Mr. Robert E. Steffey. This past year the F.F.A. had an exhibit at the Indiana County Fair of which the officers were in charge.

Of America

The adult farmers are a branch of the Future Farmers of America.

These officers were in charge of the F.F.A. exhibit at the Indiana County Fair.

Martha Hamilton was chosen the F.F.A. sweetheart of 1960.

The members were also responsible for repairing the cement sidewalks around the school.

The Future Farmer delegate to the State Convention at Penn State University and to the Farm Show was Joseph Lemmon. He represented the Indiana and Cambria County areas.

Edward Sterling, a senior, received the Keystone Farmer Degree which is based on a supervised farming program and an investment of at least $500 in farming projects.

The F.F.A. sweetheart this year was another senior, Martha Hamilton.

A branch of the Future Farmers is the Adult Farmers who, under the leadership of Mr. James L. Cook, attend classes which help them to better understand agricultural problems.

Donna Anderson, a Future Nurse, is seen weighing Marlene Coleman, another Future Nurse.

Mrs. Bush, sponsor, and Carol Griffith, secretary, confer on some of the material received on nurse's training.

Future Nurses

Maureen McCauley and James Wasicki look over some material they brought back from The Future Teachers State Convention. Mr. Buterbaugh, sponsor, approves the material.

Future Teachers

Mr. Lingenfelter, our high school principal, inducts the officers of the Future Teachers Club. They are, left to right—Lois Helman, historian; Sharon McClelland, secretary; George Krivonick, president; Mr. Lingenfelter, Joan Cherry, vice-president; Jack Lydic, treasurer; Rolando Toccafondi, news reporter; and Mr. Buterbaugh, advisor.

The purpose of the Marion Center College Club is to acquaint the members with the benefits of a college education. During their meetings they discuss entrance requirements and the advantages and disadvantages of different colleges.

During the course of the year they visit a college. This year the club went to Slippery Rock and actually experienced a day of college.

College Club - Bus Patrol

Each semester the individual bus groups have a meeting at which the students elect bus patrol leaders and review correct bus procedures. Annually, Trooper Eger speaks to the students at an assembly on highway safety.

Although Marion Center Joint High School has 21 busses to transport the students to and from school; they have a nearly perfect safety record.

Tri

Hi

The name Tri-Hi-Y has a special meaning. Tri, the threefold purpose of the Y. M. C. A.; Hi, exemplified by high school girls; Y, affiliation with the Y. M. C. A.

The purpose is: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character."

Each grade in high school has a Tri-Hi-Y club. The sponsors are: 7th grade, Mrs. Gertrude Hamilton and Mrs. Martha Black; 8th grade, Mrs. Helen Dunmire; 9th grade, Mrs. Agnes Nichol; 10th grade, Mrs. Thalia Pauch; 11th and 12th grades, Mrs. Winifred Stitt.

Some of the activities for the year have been: the sponsoring of a dance for the P. T. A. Fair, sponsoring record hops, and sending food and clothes to needy families at Christmas time.

Here Mrs. Koziel is shown with the eighth grade Junior Historians. They are looking up different routes on a map.

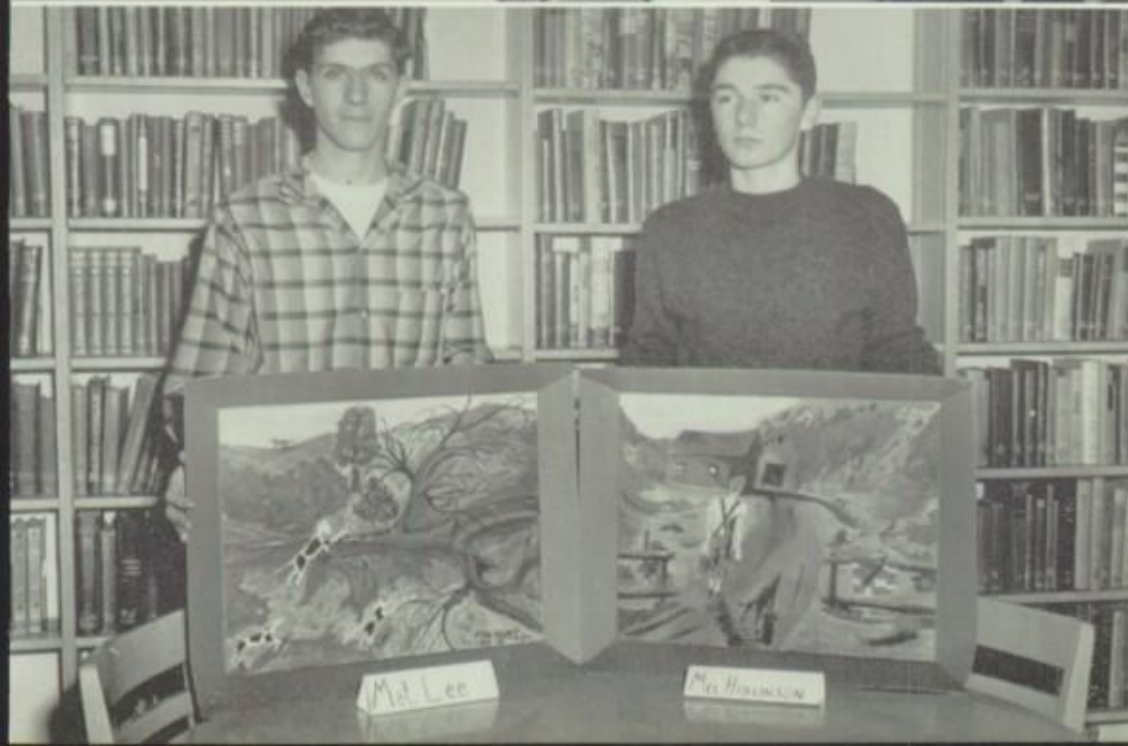

Art Club

This shows the Art Club hard at work with one of their many projects.

Warren Wiggins, one of the senior members, sets the enlarger for a year-book picture.

Yearbook Staff

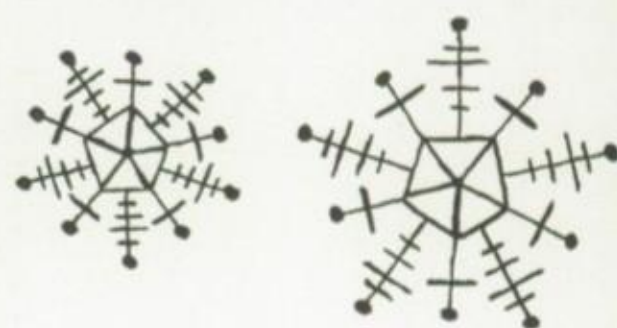

The underclassmen of the Centerama Staff are shown busily laying out pages, checking copy and examining pictures.

Eleanor Condron, one of the typists for the yearbook, is typing the senior directory.

The Centerama Staff, under the direction of Mrs. Montgomery has many jobs which must be accomplished in order that the finished product is a book to be proud of. The staff consists of five seniors, six juniors and four sophomores. Paulette Ratner, the editor, Sylvia Bence and Tony Canale, assistant editors, assign the other staff members, George Bernardo, Eleanor Condron, Joan Cherry, Bonnie Dilts, Martha Hamilton, Ethlyn Horning, Richard Lee, Le Vonne Legan, Mary Ann Mamrowich, George Palmer, Jean Reasinger, and Rebecca Walker to specific responsibilities connected with the production of a successful yearbook.

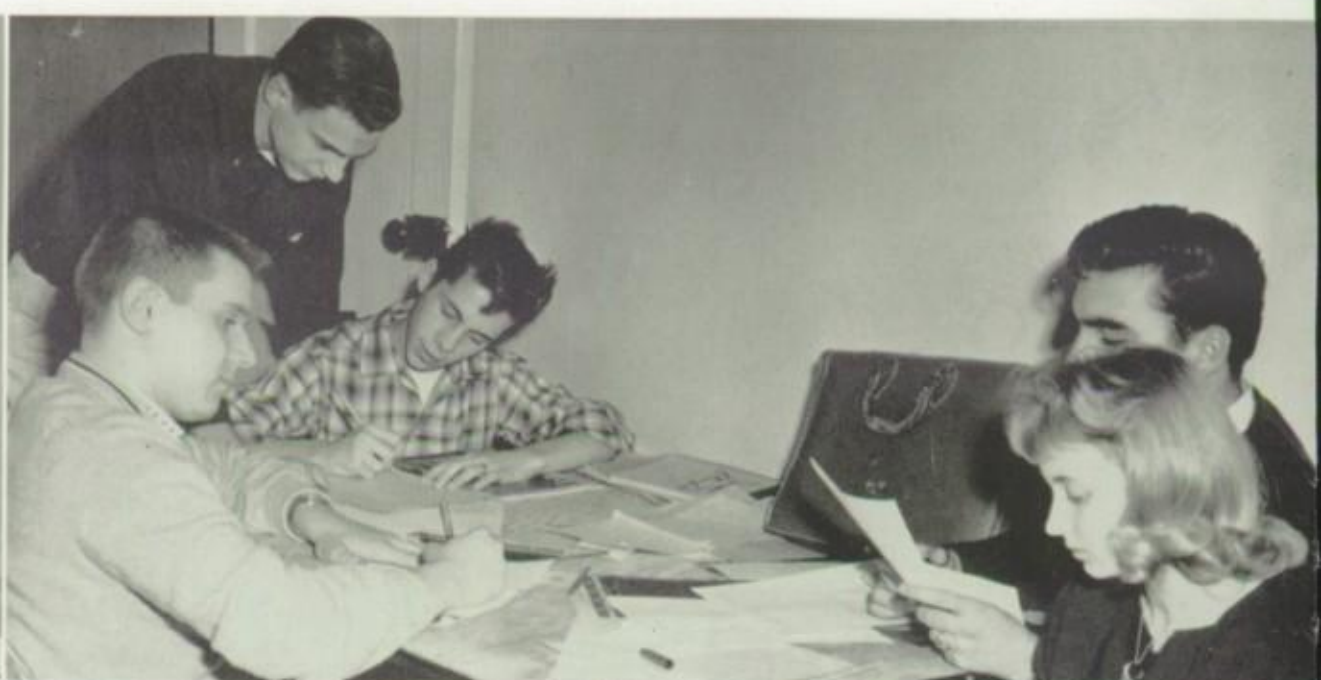

Yellow Jacket Staff

The weekly edition of the Yellow Jacket, Marion Center Joint High School's newspaper, is made possible through the hard working efforts of its staff and advisor. The typists shown here are Diane Ferringer, Mary Louise Cunningham, Kathleen George, and Barbara Peffer, who is also exchange editor. Every sixth and seventh period, staff members write, edit, type copy, and gradually assemble the forthcoming issue. Mr. Miller, advisor, reads a finished copy of the weekly paper.

The co-editors are Roberta Gilkey and Sally Hogan. The staff reports to the entire school recent happenings involving students and current school news. The reporters are Rolando Toccafondi, Larry Montgomery, Benny Trunzo, Linda Gibson, and Joseph Pinizzotto. Mimeograph operators are Dale Adamson and Richard Rethi. Other staff members include Sandra Barr, Joyce Haight, Eileen Huffman, Ella Mae Ruffner, Gene Salerno, and Thomas Wadding.

The Varsity Club

Warren Wiggins and Mary Evelyn Miller read the constitution of the National Honor Society.

National Honor Society - Projectionist Club

These are the junior members of the Projectionist Club. The club is responsible for the audio-visual aids such as; movies, film strips, and stage lighting.

Student Council

A new addition to our school this year is the Student Council Store. It is open every fourth period. The store sells useful school supplies and is convenient for all students. Here Eugene Greene is making a sale to Vincent Salsgiver and James Sheesley.

The Public Relations Committee of the Student Council organized a "Let Others Be Thankful Week" and each student was to bring one can of food for this drive. The committee then packed the food and distributed it to several families in the hope that their Thanksgiving might be happier. George Krivonick, Mr. Bloom, sponsor; and Judy Cherry are shown packing the food.

Sylvia Bence, president, presides over a business meeting of Student Council. Mr. Hoover, advisor; Joan Mumau, secretary; Fred Bowser, vice-president; and Dwight Kemp, listen thoughtfully.

Chess Club

The purposes of the chess clubs are to stimulate thinking on a concentrated activity and to promote interest in chess as a game of recreation. These clubs, which meet Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, engage in matches with other chess clubs from high schools in this vicinity. Mr. Hoover, the advisor, teaches the members new methods of chess strategy and encourages them in their playing. In the upper left, senior chess club members engage in a practice session with each other. The officers of the senior chess club, shown in the upper right are, sitting, Robert Sexton, secretary; Charles Garbart, treasurer; standing, John Anderson and James Berkey, co-secretaries of the junior chess club, and Leroy Sink, president. At our left, Mr. Hoover is giving pointers to Melvin Hankinson and Charles Garbart. At the bottom right the junior chess club is preparing for an important match.

Each year a representative is elected from each home room to serve on the Junior Red Cross. They engage in many activities throughout the school year. Shown are Roger Stear, Mrs. Ross, and Betty Jane Vann, making favors for Easter.

Red Cross, Librarians

The student librarians assist Mrs. Taylor, librarian, with the many duties associated with the library. In the process of decorating the bulletin board are the officers, left to right, Madeline Stuchull, president; Lois Helman, secretary; Kathleen George, reporter for YELLOW JACKET; Virginia Simpson, treasurer; and Evelyn Spence, vice-president. During National Book Week there were many decorative displays in the library. One was a book tree displaying the many new books available in the library.

Science Astronomy

The purpose of the Science and Astronomy Clubs is to stimulate more interest among the students in the field of science. They do special projects relating to their specific fields. Mr. Zbur is the sponsor of the Science Club and Mr. Coffman sponsors the Astronomy Club.

Mr. Zbur explains to several science club members the various parts of the microscope and several slides. They are, left to right, Joan Cherry, George Gresock, Charles Walker, Floyd Beatty and Sharon McClelland.

Marlene Coleman adjusts her telescope for a clearer look at the lunar eclipse.

Paul Stenman gets a clear shot of the moon's eclipse through his small telescope.

The Senior Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Davis, has supplied musical entertainment for the high school and for the public. They provided the background music for The Fourth Wise Man, our Christmas Program, and sang a number of selections for the Spring Concert. This year's concert was a special occasion for them. It was the first year they sang in their choir robes. To help finance these robes, the members sold candy and sponsored several dances. The final yearly event was the Vespers Service, at which they bade a choral farewell to the seniors.

Mixed Chorus, Majorettes

Our twirling majorettes add color and interest to the Senior Marching Band. There are five majorettes and two captains. These two girls, Barbara Sheesley and Donna Jones, are both seniors. Last summer the band sent them to majorette school in Illinois. They brought back much worthwhile information and many new routines.

The majorettes are, left to right, Le Vonne Legan, Judy Caylor, Barbara Sheesley, Marlene Bonacci, Donna Jones, Sandra Mc-Afoos, and Helen Hastings.

The Senior Concert Band, directed by Mr. Frank Koziel, consists of sixty-five students from the Junior and Senior High School. During rehearsal these young musicians learn much about the various instruments, intonation, and various other musical skills as they practice a wide variety of music. The members of Marching Band are selected from Concert Band on their marching and musical ability. The Marching Band performs at many local events and also enters into county and regional competition. They have won prizes throughout the county and have done much to promote the name of the school.

Marching Band

Senior Concert Band, Dance Band

The Marion Center Dance Band was re-organized last year and is a distinct part of the instrumental program. The Dance Band is composed of persons selected from within the Senior Concert Band for the purpose of producing a different sound in music: The Dancing Sound. It has earned distinction in performances in not only our own school, but in others in our area.

Three part harmony can be heard every Tuesday and Thursday fifth period from the Girls' Chorus. This organization, directed by Mrs. Davis, is comprised of sixty-six girls from tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. During their rehearsals they plan a repertoire for the Fashion Show, Spring Concert and special assemblies. The chorus sings numbers of varied interests and origins and their performances are greatly appreciated by the public and student body.

Girls' Chorus

The Junior Chorus, consisting of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students, is under the direction of Mr. Bloom. They meet on the stage once a week to practice for the Spring Concert and special assemblies. The Junior Chorus party was held this year on a Monday, fifth period. There was dancing and refreshments. The chorus members have fun together, but their main purpose is to prepare for Senior Chorus by learning the basic music and singing techniques.

Junior Chorus, Cadet Band

The purpose of the Cadet Band is to help students beginning their musical experiences, to learn the musical techniques and methods needed for Senior Band. Students comprising this organization attend the Junior High or Elementary schools in the jointure. They rehearse twice weekly to prepare for the annual spring concert. Following the concert and during the summer, they rehearse outside to learn the necessary marching techniques. Under the direction of Mr. Bloom, they demonstrate these techniques at local and county events.

In Basketball Determination And Hustle

The varsity basketball team, full of experience, displayed hustle and desire when the going was rough and fell just short of an unprecedented third league title in a row. This year's Stingers led by the fine tutoring of Ken Williams, consist of: Front Row, left to right—Dick Stadtmiller, Jeral Simpson, Dave Wymer, Everett Dembosky, Jack Lydic, and Mel Hankinson. Back Row—Coach Williams, Fred Bowser, Eugene Greene, George Krivonick, Warren Wiggins, Dave Hamilton, and Lyle Williams, manager.

Varsity Basketball

A player from Kiski fouls Dick Stadtmiller as he drives in on a layup.

In a tight game with Blairsville Warren Wiggins taps in two points, but it was not quite enough as Blairsville edged the Stingers 50-47.

Fred Bowser scores on a fast break in the game with Kiski Prep. The Jackets outhustled the opponents and won 66-49.

The Junior Varsity basketball team coached by Mr. Coffman ran their victory string to 33 games before losing to Dayton. They finished with a fine 14-6 record. Members of the team are, Kneeling, left to right—Ronald Lightcap, Eugene Lutz, Gary Wolfe, Anthony Nastase, and Ronald Gilkey. Standing—Jerry Stahlman, manager; Robert Bence, Gary Elkin, Vernon Styers, and coach John Coffman.

Gary Wolfe displays perfect form as he scores on a jump shot in the game with Reynoldsville. The Junior Jackets ended the season with a victory in this one, 62-31.

Wolfe does it again; this time against Kiski in a 63-28 rout. Vern Styers skillfully blocks Kiski's number 22 on the play.

To An Inexperienced Team

In Wrestling, Strength And Endurance

Carlysle Shaffer, a senior, holds the school record with the most wrestling victories, a total of 27 wins.

Richard Putt is in the process of pinning his opponent with a half-nelson.

Dominate. As In Track

The TRACK TEAM, coached by Mr. McGinnis and Mr. Zbur, coasted to a 4-1 record in dual meets. They won one triangular meet and placed second in two. They also placed third in the county meet.

They Are Victorious

Leroy Orr, star sprinter, crosses the finish line victorious in the 880 yard dash. Placing second is Dick Stadtmiller of Marion Center, and coming in third is an unidentified runner from Penns Manor.

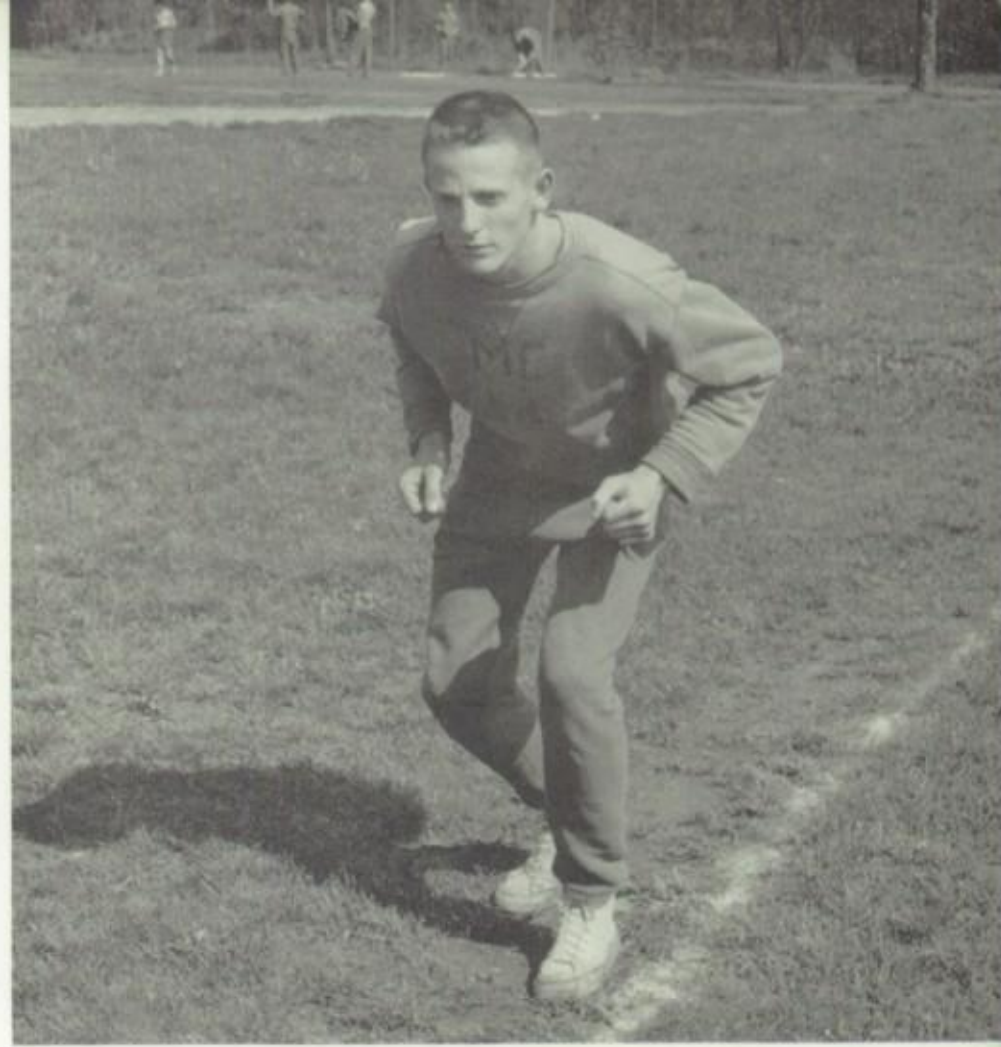

George Krivonick looks as though he is sinking in quicksand as he completes the broad jump in the Penns Manor meet.

Up and over goes Bob Sexton in the pole vault. He placed first in this meet.

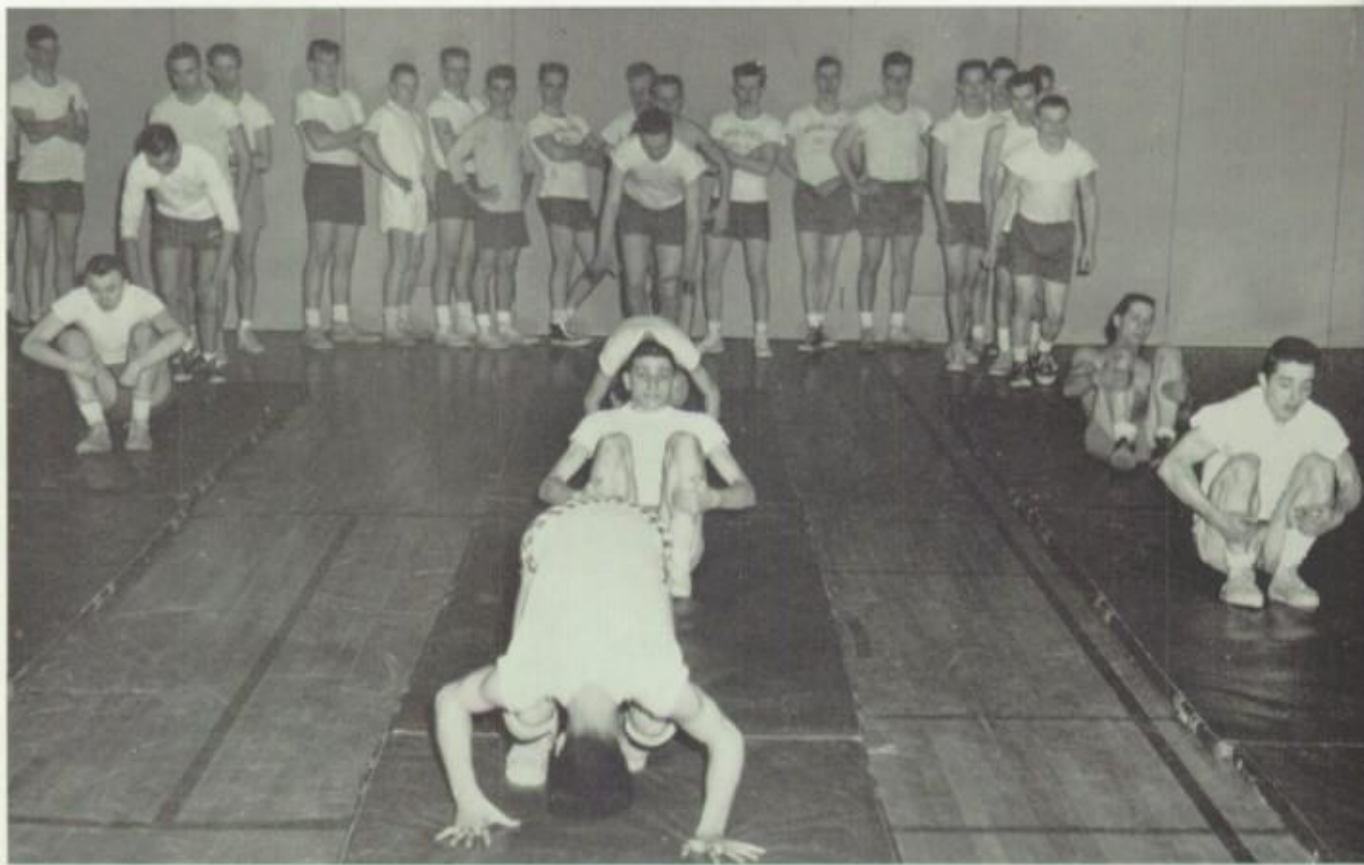

Boys' Intramurals

Coach McGinnis has been blessed the last three years with a speedy runner named Leroy Orr. Leroy was undefeated in the 880 yard dash and the mile run throughout his track career. He was also undefeated in the 440 yard dash. He participated in the Broad Jump with much success. In the District Meet at Huntingdon he placed first in the 880 and the mile. He has scored a record breaking number of points in his high school career—330. Leroy placed third in the mile at the State meet at State College.

Boys' intramurals play an important role in the physical training of the student. Whenever possible leagues are set up in sports such as basketball and volley ball. Mr. McGinnis and Mr. Gilbert, the physical education instructors, also set up tournaments in wrestling and track. The center picture shows a group practicing tumbling, another phase of physical training. Below on the left is a volley ball game between two senior home rooms.

Girl's Athletics

The girls' physical education classes learned many new skills this year, and improved some of the more familiar ones. A few of the favorites were modern dance, softball, and the side stretch. The teacher was Miss Mollie Allshouse.

Cheerleaders

Tonight's the big game! The varsity cheerleaders are getting ready to cheer the team on to victory.

Comes Spring and The Seniors View The Future

Jean Anderson, Mary Jane Roof, Susie Adams, Betty Yarnick, and Rose Lockard prepare for commencement practice.

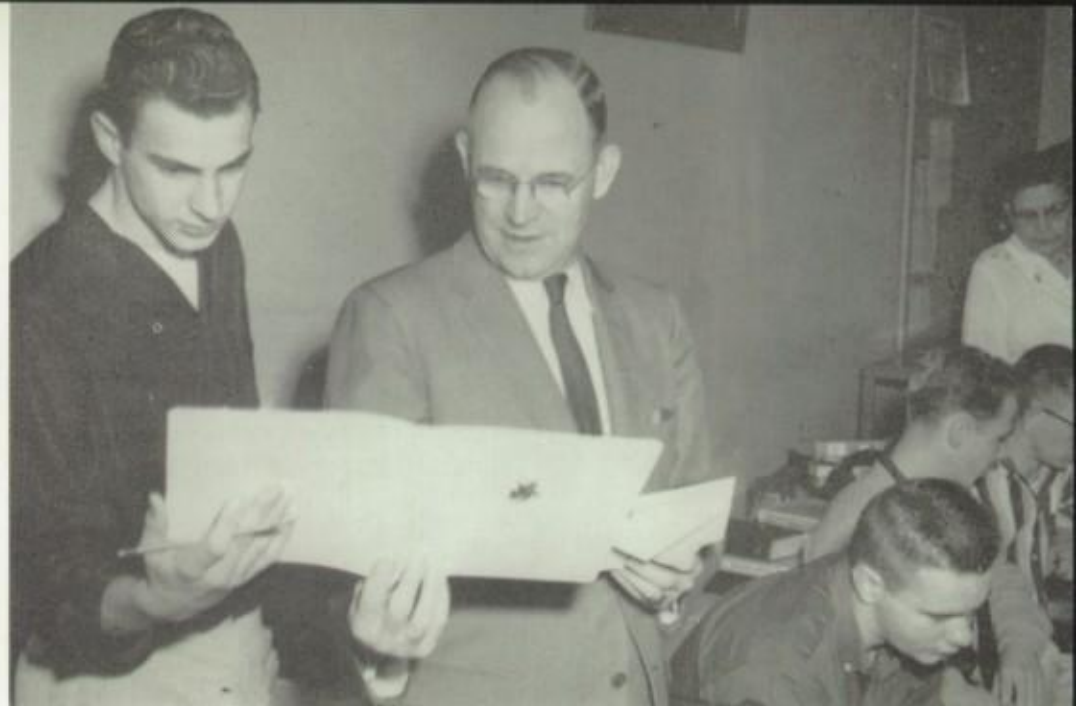

With Mixed Emotions

This scene is typical of the many groups you see at the end of the school year. These seniors, carrying their caps and gowns, are about to begin another day of practice for vespers and commencement. Their school years are gone and the future now awaits them. Some anticipate the future with expectation, others are undecided and doubtful as to what the world holds for them. Nevertheless, they must aim for a goal that they wish to attain.

A group of juniors are busily preparing table decorations for the prom.

Several artistic juniors are absorbed in getting the stage background ready for the night of all nights.

The Evening At Its Height

Ruth Ann Peterson and Warren Wiggins make their wish.

The king and queen lead the dance of the court.

The king and queen and their court consist of Linda Tonkin, queen; Carlisle Shaffer, king; Vernon Miller, Josephine Olexy, Roger Hamill, Maureen McCauley, Wanda Carlson, Larry Montgomery, Sylvia Bence, and Jeffrey Bish.

Class Of

The graduating class of 1960 has been an active one. The class, comprised of 142 students, has been the largest one to graduate from Marion Center. Many of the graduates have participated in band, chorus, sports, and other activities and the school will miss the contribution that they have made. Their caps and gowns are a symbol of their four years' achievement.

The Climax

Rev. Roy S. Shultz of the Grove Chapel - Harmony Grove Lutheran Parish delivered the sermon for the Vesper Service. Other ministers participating were Rev. Edward Furman, Rev. David E. Bickett, and Rev. Paul Betz.

Dr. Philip Lovejoy addressed the seniors on "Make Way for Tomorrow" at their Commencement exercises.

Virginia Sue Simpson was the recipient of the Raymond Munnell Scholarship Award presented by Mr. Wm. A. McCreery, Supervising principal.

Of Our School Days

The senior members of Yearbook Staff and Camera Club work together throughout the school year under the supervision of Mrs. Montgomery and Mr. Coffman. The Yearbook members are: Martha Hamilton, Eleanor Condron, Paulette Ratner, Sylvia Bence, and Tony Canale. The Camera Club members are: Warren Wiggins and Richard Little.

Is The Farewell Assembly

On May 17 Leroy ran the mile in 4 minutes 28.2 seconds, setting a new county record. Orr also placed first in the 880 event, and was anchor man for Marion Center's winning mile relay team.

Student Council presented two awards. George Krivonick gave the Citizenship Award to Martha Hamilton, and Mr. Ralph Hoover gave the President's Award to Sylvia Bence.

The senior varsity members, Eugene Green, Warren Wiggins, and Everett Dembosky are awarded varsity letters by Coach Ken Williams.
